

Sea Turtle House

Family ambience in...

..a paradise for nature lovers and those who like to have fun.

Please see our pictures to have a first impression of the following:

- private white beach and a clear blue sea
- No adjoining neighbours to the resort for a better sleep
- Mouth watering international kitchen
- A lot of entertainments available
- Moalboal is one of the best divespots in the Phil.
- The rooms are very clean and in good condition.
- public White Beach nearby.

- We offer a lot of entertainments partially in cooperation with different organizers:

Horseback riding, cañoning, cave exploring and visits, mountain biking, renting a motorbike or a scooter, boat trips, snorkelling, swimming, eating an ice cream, to get entertained (Filipinos are much fun of having a chat with others, folkloristic dances nearby (high season), to play golf at half an hour distance, and to visit churches and museums in Cebu-City as well as shopping malls where one can buy (almost) everything. Sightseeings(!) of gorges, waterfalls, sandbeaches, volcano on neighbouring Negros Is., nearby islands, nature reserves, swimming in the river at the waterfall, snorkelling to discover somemore colorful underwater scenery in the sea. Guided tours in our aircon jeep Restaurant- and barhopping, sportsbars, (great openair-disco in Moalboal at a distance it doesn't disturb your sleep).

Scuba Diving: The Philippines are top ranked for the Indo-Pacific region in a general inquiry by the American Scuba Diving Magazine among 100 readers in terms of quality and price (January 2008).

We offer great scuba diving in cooperation with our neighbours.

- Ecological resort:
 - a) Drainage doesn't go to the sea uncleared, well studied and devided septic tank
 - b) Solid waist handling/Recycling as far as possible by following Swiss guidelines
 - c) We cook with gas (not with wood) to avoid smoke
